Our citizens in the suburbs are busy making gardens.

A LABORER tobacco crop than usual will be planted in Fayette County this season.

Mr. THOMAS J. FARLEY sprained his wrist on Saturday evening by a fall at the Mammoth Park.

The iron front at the Red Corner Clothing store has been finished with the exception of putting in the glass.

Up to this time the converts by Mrs. Vonholtz and daughter, at Germantown, number something over three hundred.

In the last few weeks Messrs. Hechinger & Co. have given to their customers more than 500 Waterbury watches.

Mr. A. D. TOLLE's smoke house, in East Mayville, was broken into last Saturday night and robbed of eleven pieces of meat.

This residence of Mr. W. B. Carpenter, at Covington, was broken into by thieves one last week, and robbed. The loss was light.

Both rinks were largely attended on Saturday evening, a fact that goes to show roller skating is as popular as ever in Mayville. Both places are well managed and popular.

MARSHAL JAMES BROWN and Mr. W. H. Yancy took to the insane asylum at Anchorage, this morning, Jesse Dorlan, a colored man, who has been legally declared of unsound mind.

JUDITH E. WHITAKER and Mr. John Mitchell sold a few days ago a crop of white burley tobacco to Mr. B. A. Wallingford for $150 a hundred pounds. The price is the best obtained for some time past.

There has been considerable excitement at Lexington in the last several days, caused by the announcement that a body of men from Rowan County were coming for the purpose of releasing Bledsoe, the murderer of Gill. An extra guard has been placed at the jail.

The street car line, we are pleased to learn, is doing a good business. The company has done everything possible for the comfort of those who use the cars, and therefore have the entire good will of the people and are entitled to it. They have made many generous concessions to the public.

MAYVILLE can not depend upon March winds and April showers to blow off and wash away the filth in her streets. Outraged nature will sooner remove the people. The hoe and cart must be put to work upon the streets, and occupants of private premises must be required to clean them.

AUNT BECKY CLARK, a well-known citizen, died yesterday at the age of about ninety-years. At the time of her death she was a member of the Methodist Church and been for more than fifty years. The funeral will take place from the M. E. Church, to-morrow afternoon at two o'clock, the Rev. George S. Easton officiating.

The following is from the Yeoman: Mr. Leslie Worthington, the gentleman who so gallantly won the nomination for the State Senate in Mason, is the law partner of Judge Garrett S. Wall, a man of intelligence, high character and excellent family. He will come without question and be a valuable acquisition to the assembly.

It is now unlawful in this State for any one to catch, kill or in any manner destroy any quail, partridge, etc., during the months of March, April, May, June, July, August and September, and any persons found guilty are liable to a fine of $3 for each offense. Also, it is the same law regarding the black, grey or fox squirrel, from the 1st of February to the 15th of June, and any person found guilty will be fined $3 for each offense.

Two remains of William Neal, who was hanged at Grayson, on Friday, were conveyed by his family and conveyed to the residence of his father-in-law, Hiram Rice, about three miles from Catlettsburg, and there interred at a spot designated by Neal shortly before his execution. A despatch from Catlettsburg says: "Neal's father, to make a confession was no surprise to the people here who know him. While they almost without an exception believe him guilty, few thought he would confess his guilt at the gallows. Those who went from here to witness the execution say that Neal's talk and actions in the jail and at the scaffold strengthened their belief in his guilt. Not a single person among many talked with his belief in Neal's guilt shaken by his dying protestations of innocence."

The Popular Vote.

The American Almanac for 1885, which is edited Mr. Ainsworth R. Spofford, the Librarian of Congress, is out. It compiles the popular vote at the recent Presidential election as follows: Cleveland, 4,911,017; Blaine, 4,848,241; St. John, 151,800; Butler, 133,285; scattering and blank, 113,321; total popular vote, 10,048,001, or 79.3 per cent. of the voters indicated by the census of 1880. Plurality for Cleveland, 62,833. To arrive at this result the fusion vote in Iowa and Nebraska is counted for Cleveland, and in Michigan only 733 Greenback voters are given to Butler. In Missouri all the fusion vote is counted for Blaine, and in West Virginia Butler is only credited with 935 votes.

To Get Rid of Misery.

What is the use of suffering from dyspepsia, nervous prostration or debility, when Brown's Iron Bitters will tone you up and ease those horrors out. There is joy in every bottle of this valuable tonic. It makes bad blood good, and bids dismal maladies be cheerful. It brings good cheer to the dinner table, and makes the family happy. It drives away the blues, and helps you to enjoy a hearty lunch. And all the respectable druggists keep it.

Serious Accident.

We regret to announce a serious accident to Miss Jane R. Parks, by a fall, at her residence on Limestone street, on Sunday morning. In stepping from the back porch to the pavement, which was covered with ice, she slipped, and falling, sustained a fracture of the bones at the hip joint. The injury is considered a very grave one. Dr. J. T. Strode and Dr. A. J. Browning are the physicians attending her.

A war between Great Britain and Russia would create a largely increased demand for wheat in the United States. It would draw on the wheat producing population of India for the main body of soldiers who would fight the English battles.

REPORTS from Bearton, Glinier and Calhoun Counties, West Virginia, say a few days travel in the counties named has revealed destitution and suffering indescribable. In many localities the people are on the verge of starvation.

REPRESENTATIVE Taulbee is pressing Out. Hagar of his district for United States Marshal.

COUNTY POINTS.

Elder W. W. HARKINS, of Carlisle, will begin a series of meetings at Mill Creek Church on the evening of April 2nd (Tuesday) at seven o'clock. Elder Harkins preached for this people two years and his ability to proclaim the gospel is well known and we need not say how much we love him and how much we will be highly entertained and spiritually benefited by his pure, logical, forcible and persuasive sermons.

Died at the residence of Jas. Cook on Sunday afternoon, the 28th inst., Thomas Harrison, of To-Indors. He was afflicted for several years with rheumatism and heart trouble and was as a soldier destined to be victorious, but that glorious soldier succumbed to the disease.

How sweet to think that on his eyes A lover's dream shall yet arise, That he shall wake from sorrow's dream, Beside a girl who loves him true.

Reminiscence.

Retired by germ-cure is again being assisted. Miss Lizzie Kirk, of Hebron, is the guest of Rev. Powers. Miss Minerva Norton, of Minerva, is the guest of Rev. Powers. Miss Mary E. Moore, of Washington, is the guest of Miss Ella Moore. Mrs. Vonholtz and daughter will return to their home on Sunday. The church is crowded both day and night. Miss Mary McGoughlin, is the charming guest of Miss Mary McGoughlin. Brookville and Minerva crowd are wanted to have the "prettiest girls" come here. Come again. The wedding club were out in full force Monday night. Rev. Powers' carriage was demolished. Rev. Powers' children were killed and Colonel Martin Martin had a great wound broken by a club being thrown into it. Mrs. Rebecca Mottford, wife of the late John B. Mottford, died Sunday night. Her remains were interred at our cemetery here on a beautiful obelisk, and her death is regretted by her many friends.

The Mahdi's Battle Song.

(Gulistan News.)

I'm a desert hyena, I am,
And I dwell in the Sudan;
I'm a sugar and a shoon, and the Britishers loathe,
From Ischia into the Nile, Whooop!
I have ostrich on toast every day,
I eat out at a meal, by a jackal or two,
I like crocodile skin, as they say.
I'm the thirteenth fingered Mahdi, I am,
And I'm King of the sandy union,
I'm a fallacious and a rascal, a rascal, a rascal,
And I can wallop the British, I can.
I have men by the million or more,
And I dwell in the Sudan;
I'm a son of a gun from the land of a gun,
I'm a red-headed Arab for a gore.
Then, whoop! for the sandy Sudan,
Let anyone slay me who can,
I'm a crooked-leg, long-legged son-of-a-gun,
For me gone—I'm a very bad man, Whooop!

Too Much Experience.

He was an agent for a lot of picture frames and he struck upon an original way of selling them. He started out on Clifford street and rang the bell of the first house he came to, and in a good-looking woman opened the door he asked, briskly:
"Got any pictures that want framing?"
"Not a one," was the chilling response.
"No copy of Washington at Valley Forge?"
"Not a Washington."
"No Cleopatra sailing up the Nile?"
"Nary a Cleopatra."
"Have you a marriage certificate that is just?"
"Just then something fell on him. When he was helped up out of the debris he looked round with a dazed air, and the frame of mind he was in was the only picturesque thing about him, as he struck a two-forty gat out of sight.—De troit Free Press.

Insured to It.

(Pittsburgh Courier.)
"Yes," remarked the Mean Customer, diving into a fresh box of raisins, "experience is a slave to the most recent fashions. I stand a campaign in the field better than the laboring man."

"That's so," said the Sharp Grocer, absently looking at a box of raisins. "The twenty-cent coffee into the forty-cent bag," "true as pie." I remember during the war that the young fellows from business houses etc. etc. etc. the fatigue better than the volunteers who had been out longer. I suppose it is in the English, too. Five pounds of sugar I believe you said."

"Right; five pounds. Yes, it is the same in the English army. They say the soldiers who were affected by the sand winds of the Sudan were those who had worked in grocery stores."

A Little Lullaby.

(Macon Telegraph.)
The experience of the Georgia gentleman who named his girl Eufania and sent her out afterwards to find a husband "wet dog," recalls the experience of a "new rich" lady who called her little daughter "slave" and her little son "nigger." She said the name was a fashionable one in Paris, and nearly all first-class families used it.

This Is Not a Johnny Jump-Up.

(Chicago News.)
A few weeks ago the gossip was telling us how clever Mr. John R. McLean, of Ohio, would be to the Ohio administration. It now appears the gossip was right. The President is evidently sitting on the little Ohio jump-up.

The Little Dick—"Is you going to be my new brother?" Mr. De Rich (accepted suit)—"Yes, my little fellow." "You is going to get hitched to my sister, ain't you?" "Your lovely sister and I are long to be united in the holy bonds of matrimony." "I'd like to see 'em." "See what?" "The bonds. Sister has been blown' about how many you have to everybody what comes."

Old Mr. Bentley brought home a painting, which he exhibited to his wife with great pride.

"There," he said, "what do you think of that?" "Cost only $3, frame all, an' all, it's a genuine jump-up."

"Rubbins?" suggested old Mr. Bentley.

"No, taint Rubbins. H'm. Begins with R; chrome; that's it—a genuine chrome."

GLEANED FROM ABROAD

OUNDING THE WAR TOGGIN IN VAR-IOUS PARTS OF THE WORLD.

Diemally Dark Days Seem Imminent to all Warring Countries — Anglo-Russian and Franco-Chinese — in the Tropics—Foreign News.

PARIS, March 30.—A dispatch has been received from Gen. Negrier from Dong Dong which says: "The Chinese attacked Dong Dong. I advanced and captured the first line of forts defending their camp at Raungbo. Renewed efforts were made by us against the enemy, but these proved unavailing in the face of superior numbers. Our artillery ammunition was exhausted, and we returned to Dong Dong. Our loss in killed and wounded numbered 300."

La Justice states that it has good authority for saying that an English firm in Birmingham has made during the past six months 30,000,000 cartridges for China and consigned them to a German officer in active service under the Peking government.

In the chamber of deputies M. Delafosse asked the government to publish the whole truth concerning the Dong Dong affair. Premier Ferry in reply read Gen. Negrier's telegram in reference to the engagements. M. Ferry stated that the measures had been completed for the dispatch of reinforcements, the advance columns of which were arriving at Langson. "The affair at Dong," he said, "is merely an incident of the war, the effects of which our glorious commanders know how to resist, and which will not affect the confidence reposed in them by the chamber." M. Delafosse lauded the bravery of the French soldiers and expressed his regret that such men should be sacrificed to a mad, criminal enterprise. The speech was greeted with mingled applause and protests. M. Ferry, replying to a direct interpellation from a member of the right, said: "If you wish to make the matter a cabinet question do so." Mr. Delafosse thereupon declared that although reinforcements had been repeatedly sent to Tonquin, the expedition had been barren of result. The chamber finally fixed Saturday as the day for the discussion of an interpellation by M. Granatou on the present state of the Franco-Chinese war.

In the Tropics.

LA LIBERTAD, San Salvador, March 30.—The war which has been thought inevitable for some time past has already become actuality. The forces of Honduras and those of San Salvador have already come into collision and several skirmishes have occurred. The armies of Guatemala and Honduras are acting in harmony and are now confronting the forces of San Salvador. Active measures are being taken by San Salvador, Nicaragua and Costa Rica to protect themselves against the revolutionary scheme of President Barrios. On the 25th inst. an alliance, defensive and offensive, was formally entered into by these three states and arrangements were perfected for putting an effective force in the field.

San Salvador, whose territory is most threatened, takes the leading place in the alliance. She will put her whole army in the field. Nicaragua will provide 4,000 and Costa Rica sends 3,000. Costa Rica at the same time contributes $100,000 toward the expense of the war. President Zaldívar, San Salvador, will assume the chief command of the allied forces. President Carreras, of Nicaragua, will be second in command and Gen. Soto, of Costa Rica, will take the third place.

Ripe for War.

LONDON, March 30.—The excitement for the past few days has almost entirely subsided down. It has given place to a more sober feeling, yet the under-current is such as to leave no doubt that a passage of arms with Russia is confidently expected. The intense bitterness of the people against Russia is reflected in many ways. In army and navy circles the war spirit is predominant, and prominent army officers say they would greet the declaration of war against Russia with joy, and freely express the hope that it will not be long deferred. A spirit of enthusiasm is rarely, if ever equalled, and prevails at military centers over the prospect of a conflict. Consensus of opinion is that the worst will be known by Wednesday of next week, but no reason is given for this belief other than the Globe article of yesterday. The market were a little steadier to-day. The dealing on the stock exchange were on a limited scale and prices closed without any change, as at yesterday's close.

Mr. Lowell's successor.

LONDON, March 30.—Pinnacles of tear-pour from the English press over the recall of Mr. Lowell, who is undoubtedly the most popular minister among the English ever sent from the United States as undersecretary, is whether justly or unjustly, the most popular among the American colony and tourists. This is oddly at variance with the popularity with which the latter regard Messrs. Shairer and Mitchell, the American consul and vice consul at London, who are as well liked by the English as by their countrymen. Much curiosity is expressed by the press about Mr. Phelps, who is generally described as a Vermont senator and a professor of Yale college. The St. James Gazette and the Pall Mall Gazette are positively brutal in speaking of his presumed insignificance, while the Times, Post and News are courteous. Said a leading American banker: "I have known the new minister for twenty years. He will make his mark here in diplomatic society and among men of science."

On the Thames.

LONDON, March 30.—In the university boat race Oxford won by two lengths. The weather was fine and clear with light wind and favorable water, which was calm and smooth. The race was witnessed by a large crowd. The race was hotly contested throughout. Oxford gained a slight start at the head, but at the quarter-mile mark was an even race. Oxford soon took the lead again and held it steadily. Near the Hammer Smith bridge Oxford increased the lead through wind steering by Cambridge, making a boat length of water between them. Oxford was the favorite in betting at heavy odds.

Spaniards Attacked by Africans.

MADRID, March 30.—Advices from the new Spanish colony on Gold River, on the west coast of Africa, state that the settlement was attacked by natives, who destroyed the trading building, killed six Spaniards and took many into captivity.
